Campus Advantage Promotes Tonya Neumeier as Regional Vice President for Professional Services

Austin, Texas- (September 14, 2007) Campus Advantage announced today the promotion of Tonya Neumeier to the position of Regional Vice President for Professional Services. Tonya will report to the Vice President of Professional Services and lead the CATT team. She will lead the transition efforts of new clients through stabilization.

“Tonya brings many years of experience in the student housing industry to Campus Advantage,” said Scott Duckett, Vice President of Professional Services. “Her attention to detail, commitment to company standards and proven ability to lead the CATT team will be an invaluable asset to the company.”

Prior to joining Campus Advantage, Tonya worked with one of the largest student housing providers, Allen & O’Hara where she held various positions including Resident Assistant, Resident Director, Assistant General Manager, and General Manager. Previously, she worked in management for on-campus housing for Duke University. With years of experience, she worked for Diebold and CBORD, and served as a consultant for colleges and universities across the United States, Canada, Australia, New Zealand, South Africa and Europe on student housing management and access control systems.

Tonya recently moved to Austin, Texas. She holds a Bachelor of Science degree from the University of Wisconsin-Madison. She is currently a member of ACUHO-I where she has a leadership role on the Program Committee, among involvement of other task forces and committees. Also, she has worked with NACUBO, NACAS, NACUFS, and NACCU in various capacities.
